Frequently Asked Questions about Cub Camporee'

Focus of this event: This event is themed for fall fun and fellowship. We have invited Community Organizations, such as the Army Reserves, Fire and Police Departments, etc. It is a fun event for everyone in the Cub's family.

Is there a hayride? Yes! It will be a little bit spooky, but not too scary. It will be right after dinner on Saturday night. Please plan accordingly.

Why is the fee $15.00 per person? This fee is an entry fee, not a participation fee. Everyone who attends the event pays the fee. At this event there is something for everyone and is geared to our Cub Scout families. Cubs will have their own activities, younger siblings will have some activities, and adults will be able to visit all the organizations that are present to gain knowledge and resources to help with service projects and additional opportunities that they can participate in as packs and/or families. There is a patch included in the fee.

Is there a discount for large families? Yes! We offer a discount for families with more than 3 people, up to 8 total in the family.

Is this a Day or Camping event? This is a camping event, to come for the day only you must register for the Cub Family Day event instead. If you choose to register for the CubCamporee, you will be placed in a camping site with your pack. Some smaller packs will have to share campsites. Camping is for Oct 26th, Saturday night only. Check In for the event is from 10am-11:30am. Check Out on Sunday is 10am.

Is food being served at this event? Yes, we will provide dinner on Saturday night, and breakfast Sunday morning. You will need to bring a lunch for Saturday or purchase food from the Trading Post or one of our vendors.

Is transportation to activities available? As with all events at Camp Sidney Dew, there is a no driving policy enforced. There is no transportation provided, however, this event will not be on a schedule other than the opening. So you can take your time to meander around camp to all the activities you want to see. We will space them as close as we can, but there will be some hiking involved. If you cannot walk uneven terrains or have the stamina for a long hike, this event may not be the one for you. Please encourage those attending to stay hydrated and take the time to enjoy Camp Sidney Dew.

What should I bring? tent, sleeping bag, pillow, changes of clothes (warm clothes – evenings can get cool), toiletry items, toothbrush, toothpaste, towel and wash cloth, lantern, flashlight, closed toed and heeled shoes, bug spray, sunscreen, raingear, flip flops or shower shoes for bathhouse only, water bottle, back pack or fanny pack, snacks, drinks, stove, etc. each child can bring a pumpkin (no more than 5lbs to chunk) We will also have some for sale here. OPTIONAL ITEMS: knife (BOYS MUST HAVE THEIR WHITTLING CHIP), padding / cot, tarps, chairs

What should I LEAVE AT HOME: pets, liquid fuel, alchoholic beverages, electronics of any kind, trading cards, generators, firearms of any kind (even pretend ones), firewood (there is plenty around camp), sandals and open toes or open heel shoes, heelies